Location

Louth is a thriving market town with a wealthy population of just under 20,000 and a predominately rural catchment of over 30,000. It sits on the eastern edge of the Lincolnshire Wolds, an area designated as one of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The town is highly regarded for its healthy mix of national and independent traders, including White Stuff, Caffè Nero, a new Loungers and a variety of businesses offering top quality local produce, such as Luck of Louth and Coopers Antique Dealers.

Mercer Row is a well-established prime town centre trading location and the property sits towards its eastern end, close to the Market Place and Eastgate. Other nearby retailers include Specsavers, Greggs, Costa and WHSmith.

The town sits in a strategic location just off the A16, which links Boston, situated just over 30 miles to the south, with Grimsby about 16 miles to the north east. Lincoln is about 25 miles to the south west.
